Internship Program

One of the major goals of our 2005 Strategic Plan is to provide professional summer internships for our undergraduate Finance majors, MS in Finance students, and MBA students with an interest in Finance. Our tactics for achieving this goal are still under development but will include the following:

1. A resume book for all of the foregoing students will be developed and made available at FOF luncheons, through requests, and as we visit with corporations.
2. All student resumes will be posted on our FOF Job website.
3. All job listings, interviewing, etc. will be handled by Career Services just as it has been in the past. FOF’s role will be to increase the number of opportunities for students.

To help FOF meet our internship goal, please encourage people in your departments and your HR departments to include TU on their list of recruiting schools. To post an internship or full-time position, please contact Career Services at 631-2549. Contact Roger Bey 631-2946 if you have questions about how you can support FOF’s internship goal. An excellent way to get to know our students and increase your chances of hiring our best is to participate in our “Take-A-Student to Lunch Program” which is described in another section of this newsletter.

TU MSF Student Attends U.S. Foreign Policy Colloquium

It was a great honor for me to be accepted and invited to attend the U.S. Foreign Policy Colloquium held from June 1st to June 4th, 2005 in Washington D.C. The colloquium was organized by the Elliott School of International Affairs of George Washington University and the National Committee on United States-China Relations. A private, non-governmental organization, the National Committee on U.S.-China Relation focuses on international politics and security, education, governance and civil society, economic cooperation, the media, and transnational global issues such as the environment and public health.

During the colloquium, we had speakers from foreign policy experts, such as Ambassador James R. Sasser, International Consultant and former US Ambassador to China and US Senator from Tennessee, and Zhang Zeguang, Deputy Chief of Mission from Embassy of China. We also had professors from the Elliott School, economists, representatives from the media, business sector, think tanks, and NGOs as our guests in lectures and panel discussion. We had site visits to eleven places such as ABC News, The Coca-Cola Company, U.S. Senate, U.S. Department of Defense, and USTR. During the colloquium, we watched Thirteen Days and had a discussion of the Cuban Missile Crisis.

It was an eye-opening experience for me. As an international student, the colloquium provided me an opportunity to better understand democracy and the making of foreign policy, to see it from both national aspect and ideological aspect, to hear opinions from different aspects of the society, and to look at the US-China relationship from a higher level.
The FOF website has been revised and now includes on-line registration for all luncheons. Our Members Services section is restricted to FOF members and requires a user name and password which you obtain when you join or renew your membership. Website features include:

Resume Posting

FOF members who are seeking employment may now post their resume on the FOF web site. An e-mail will be sent as new resumes are posted. The e-mail will only list the type of position sought and a link. Your user name and password will be required to access the actual posting.

E-mail your resume as a Word or PDF file to Judy Miller (judy-miller@utulsa.edu) who will post it. In your e-mail, please include a job title (financial analyst, CFO, etc.) of not more than four words. We will not edit your resume. There is no cost to members for this service.
Job Posting

Last year we initiated a web site for job postings. This year we will continue this service on a no cost basis for all members. Membership is required both to post jobs and to view job postings. Once we post a job, we will distribute an e-mail announcing the new job posting.

Firms who have used FOF to distribute job openings have found it to be a very effective recruiting tool. FOF members have been very appreciative and have told us how they passed along the job information to friends seeking employment. Hence, the distribution is far larger than our membership. We encourage you to have your firm participate in our job posting service.

To post a job opening, e-mail the job description in Word or PDF file, along with contact information to Judy Miller (judy-miller@utulsa.edu) who will post it. We will not edit the files.
