Tim Urban
Mayo Teaching Excellence Award

Each year, the College of Business Administration selects one faculty member to receive the Mayo Teaching Excellence Award. Tim Urban, Collins Professor of Operations Management, is this year’s recipient. Tim also is one of three faculty members who have been selected to receive the Outstanding Teaching Award at the University level. Tim has been a TU faculty member since 1987. He is nationally recognized for his research in operations management, and twice has received the Mayo Excellence in Research Award.
Student Awards & Honors

At this year’s College of Business Honors and Awards Banquet the following finance students were recognized for their outstanding achievements.

Justin M. Staebell: Faculty Honor Medal (the student with the highest GPA in the college) and the Outstanding Finance Student. Justin has a dual major in finance and economics and a minor in management information systems. Previous honors include National Merit Scholar, Presidential Scholar, President’s Honor Roll – 7 semesters, Mortar Board, Beta Gamma Sigma Honor Society and Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. He had leadership positions of president of Financial Management Association, member of the CBA Undergraduate Student Advisory Council, President’s Club, John Mabee Hall treasurer, and membership chairman of the Student Investment Fund.

Kelly D. Allen-Luelf: Wall Street Journal Award (demonstrated leadership ability and likelihood of success). Kelly has a dual major in finance and accounting. Her honors included Financial Executives International Award, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Scroll Honor Society, Mortar Board Honor Society, and Lantern Honor Society. She served as vice-president of the Financial Management Association, chair of the Community Service and Publicity Committees for Beta Alpha Psi, treasurer of Mortar Board, and is a member of the TU Business Law Society.

Keith A. Nodskov: Outstanding Economics Student and Callie and Murphy Mitchell Award (highest score on major field test). Keith has a dual major in finance and economics with a minor in mathematics. His awards include Financial Executives International Award, University of Tulsa Top Ten Senior, National Merit Finalist, Presidential Scholar, Omicron Delta Kappa, and Mortar Board. He held leadership positions as Scholarship Chairman, Philanthropy Chairman, external vice-president, and president of Pi Kappa Alpha; president Omicron Delta Kappa, treasurer of Mortar Board, president of Economic Society, and Freshman Orientation Leader.

Matthew L. Hazelwood: Outstanding Graduate Student. As a MS in Finance student, Matt had an internship at Williams Energy Marketing and Trading; an internship for the Commodities Futures Trading Commission in Washington D.C., where he worked for the Chief Economist; and was inducted into Beta Gamma Sigma. He currently is an exchange student in the Master of Finance program at the University of Zurich in Zurich, Switzerland.

FOF Members Honored

Pamela S. Peck
Outstanding Alumna

This year the College of Business Administration honored Pam Peck as an Outstanding Alumna. Pam is treasurer of Dollar Thrifty Automotive Group. She previously served as Treasurer of Thrifty Rent-A-Car System, Inc. and manager of Treasury Services for WilTel, a subsidiary of Williams. Pam earned her BSBA (’86 Summa Cum Laude) in Finance and her MBA from the University of Tulsa. She has been a long time active member of Friends of Finance and served the organization as secretary, treasurer, vice-president of programs, president, and a member of the Board of Directors. The Outstanding Alumna Award is given to alumni who have demonstrated professional excellence, drive, and personal leadership.

Rocky Moore
Fast-Track Alumnus

Each year the College of Business Administration honors one alumnus who has had graduated during the last ten years and has had an accelerated career path. This year Rocky Moore (’95 BSBA Magna Cum Laude in accounting) was the Fast-Track Alumnus recipient. Rocky is Corporate Controller and Director of Finance of Bama Companies. He previously served as Controller of Bama’s frozen dough facility. Prior to joining Bama, he worked as an audit manager with Ernst & Young LLP. Rocky has been an active member and supporter of Friends of Finance.
A Corporate Sponsorship provides a table for eight at each luncheon with preferential seating; recognition in each newsletter; recognition at each meeting on PowerPoint slides prior to the start of each luncheon, a listing on a display board at each luncheon, and recognition from the podium at a number of the luncheons.

The annual cost of a Corporate Sponsorship is $2,500. If you are interested in having your corporation join, contact Judy Miller at 631-2588 or judy-miller@utulsa.edu for details. She will add you to our waiting list.

Corporate Sponsors for this year are:
Finance Excellence Fund

One hundred and twelve donors already have given $79,633+ to this year’s Finance Excellence Fund. If you haven’t contributed, your support would be greatly appreciated. Gifts of any size $25, $50, $100 or more are welcome. As a donor you are a member of the Finance Excellence Fund Honor Roll. In addition, all gifts to the Finance Excellence Fund are credited toward membership in the President’s Council, a University-wide recognition group. Council levels are $1,500, $5,000, and $10,000 of individual gifts. Click on Finance Excellence Fund Pledge Card for a pledge card. Please give today to help us reach our $115,000 goal.
